

I strongly urge you not to relax restrictions on media ownership. If anything, regulations against media conglomerates should be strengthened. I would also like to see incentives for non-profit, community radio and tv stations. In this way, we can assure that all Americans have access to a variety of news and information sources.